 - ii. The products and/or services the company wants to exhibit (i.e. product brochures)
- b. Exhibitor can apply for exhibit space on a first-come, first serve basis. Application being placed through our online platform is confirm upon Tie-breaker - Date/time on application. If the booth chosen is not available, the next best option will be attributed at the discretion of the Organizer.
- c. Even if the criteria described above are respected, AOP reserves the right to refuse any demands to exhibit based on space limitations, safety & legislation matters, failure to comply with the above guidelines, past inappropriate behaviour or if the company does not meet the Organizer interests.

2. Application procedure

- a. To apply for a booth space, a company should place its order through our AOP online platform (<http://www.aopcongress.com>)
- b. No demand for exhibit space will be accepted by phone or email.
- c. In respect to chapter 2.1.a, the application must include a short company profile and a list of products/ services to be exhibited during AOP 2018.
- d. An automatic email along with the corresponding invoice will be immediately issued for online application. Payment of the request deposit should be followed within 72 hours (3 working days). Failure to pay within the deadline will lead to immediately release the selected products and risk of listing with low credit rate.

3. Booth space change

- a. AOP reserves the right to modify the floorplan at any time.
- b. After assignment of space, exhibitors agree to be relocated to other comparable space, if necessary, and this is under the judgement of the Organizer.

4. Cancellation or reduction of space

- a. Cancellation must be made in writing.
 - i. For cancellation received before October 15, 2018: 50% of the total invoice is charged.
 - ii. Cancellation received after October 15, 2018: no refund. Total invoice is due.
- b. In case of no payment within deadlines, the Organizer will allocate your booth to the next company on the waiting list without prior notice.

3 - COMPLIANCE & LAW

1. Obligation to provide booth layout and equipment

- a. Submit through the company account before November 15, 2018
- b. These layouts must include the maximum height of the structure, the maximum height of any sign, the ribs on the ground and they must signal the presence of a disposable floor (specify height and locate the access ramp on the map). AOP is given the right to refuse booth installation of exhibitors who have not returned the layout within the time allotted. These plans will be submitted for opinion to the Safety Officer.
- c. Roofs are not allowed
- d. The use of signage in white letters on a green background is prohibited, since these colours are reserved exclusively for the "Exit" sign or the fire services team.
- e. Below pillars ought to be covered with walls up to 3m high, leaving a 10cms space between the pillars and the added walls. And those with standpipe hose system must remain easily accessible, only curtains on this side are allowed, no fixed wall.

- a. Labor law
- b. Customs (for materials or products from abroad)
- c. Hygiene (for food or animal species)
- d. Exhibitors must ensure that their products displayed, exposed or utilized during the event are legally approved under the law of the country in which the conference is being held, except if it is clearly signified on a board. In that case, the Exhibitor is held fully responsible towards anyone. Moreover, any medical act performed during the event shall be executed by medical doctors qualified to do so under the law of FRANCE.

3. Obligation to comply with AOP non-competition policy

- a. A firm or a laboratory exhibiting at AOP, except prior approval from AOP Secretariat, cannot organise any seminars, workshops, courses involving delegates (registered doctors, nurses, etc.) during the:
 - > preceding 24 hours
 - > entire duration of the congress
 - > following 24 hours
- b. If agreed by the AOP Secretariat, the event should then obtain the approval of the Scientific Committee with regards to the good practices of the art of medicine:
 - a complete outline of all sessions should be submitted
 - timing of each session
 - title and learning objectives of each session
 - names and specialties of trainers and speakers
 - product / device eventually used for each live demonstration on a living patient
- c. If agreed by the AOP Secretariat, the event should not demand any registration fee to any of its attendees.

4. Insurance and liability

- a. Exhibitors are advised to be fully ensured by their own insurance policy including, but not limited to, risks to their property and goods, public liability, and loss or damage caused by circumstantial reasons such as fire, water, theft, and accidents. Exhibitors shall insure against, indemnify and hold AOP harmless with respect to all costs, claims, demands and expenses to which AOP may in any way be subjected as a result of any loss to the public or any persons present at the event, caused as a result of any act of the default of the exhibitors and their affiliates, agents and contractors.
- b. AOP shall not be therefore liable to the exhibitor or to any other person for

- i. loss of life
- ii. injury to person
- iii. loss or damage to property or goods

5. « Force majeure »

The event may be moved to a different date, cancelled altogether or the time frame changed as a result of incidents beyond anyone's control, extenuating circumstances out of the control of AOP (such as but not limited to general strike, invasions, hostilities, war, rioting or similar situations which prevent performance of the contract) or acts-of-God (such as but not limited to epidemics, floods, volcanic eruption, earthquakes or other convulsions of nature and other acts). The registration remains binding in the event of a time change or extensions or because of a cancellation caused by, or resulting from, directly or indirectly a Force Majeure (as such term is defined in the preceding sentence). The registrant has no right to regress if the event has been moved to a different date, a different time frame or cancelled entirely as set forth herein.

6. Image rights

- a. Pictures (photographs or films) may be allowed on written permission of AOP, within the precincts of the event. This authorization may be withdrawn at any time. A test of all the shots will be given to AOP within fifteen days following the close of the event.
- b. Shooting by visitors will be prohibited by AOP. The photograph of some object in the booths may be prohibited to demand and to the diligence of the exhibitors. The Exhibitor is obliged to allow photography of its stand and / or objects exposed by the services of professional staff of AOP or authorized by it. These shots are likely to be used later in any catalogue or advertising material published by AOP, without the Exhibitor being entitled to any compensation in return.

7. Leaflet distribution

Leaflet or other promotional material may not be distributed from anywhere other than the exhibition booths. Leaflet distributed at any other point throughout the venue will be removed by the organizer.

4 - BOOTHS SET UP & DISMANTLING

1. General date and time of installation, decoration and dismantling:

a. For raw space booths only:

1. booth set up: Thursday, December 13, from 10AM to 6PM
